THE NAYLAND, IN PORTLAND STONE

The Nayland is a timeless and sophisticated, contemporary chimneypiece, and part of the Todhunter Earle Interiors collaboration. Its sleek, modern design has clean lines and a strong architectural form, emphasizing simplicity and elegance. This versatile piece seamlessly complements both modern and classical interiors. Shown here is the sample made in English Portland Stone, a limestone from the Isle of Portland in Dorset. Portland. Stone is celebrated for its creamy, light-grey colour and fine texture, and known for its durability and workability. Made in the UK. Could be made in various marbles/limestones and could be in custom sizes as required. N.B. May be subject to an extended lead time, please enquire for more information.
