THE HIGHAM, IN BRECHE VIOLETTE MARBLE

The Higham is a striking, detailed, quintessentially English Georgian style chimneypiece and part of the Todhunter Earle Interiors collaboration. The shaped, moulded jambs are surmounted by a frieze carved with intricate stop flutes and a moulded shelf above. The stock version of The Higham is made in Breche Violette - a rare and luxurious marble admired for its dramatic, fragmented appearance and rich colour palette. This chimneypiece could be made in custom sizes and stones/marbles. Please enquire for more info and pricing. N.B. May be subject to an extended lead time, please enquire for more information.
