THE LAYHAM, IN WHITE MARBLE

The Layham is an elegant English chimneypiece and part of the Todhunter Earle Interiors collaboration. The jambs feature an inground moulding, carved with fine quality, delicate beading surmounted by a plain frieze and shelf carved with matching beading. Based on a period original in the late-Georgian manner. The stock version of the Layham is made in a white marble but could be made in various marbles/limestones and could be in custom sizes as required. N.B. May be subject to an extended lead time, please enquire for more information.
